The fourth annual meeting of the Vermont conference of social workers will be held in the hall of the public library, Montpelier, Wednesday and Thursday, Jan. 15 and 16. Two problems given spe-cial emphasis are: Human reconstruction made necessary by the great war, and the care of dependent children.

Secretary A. C. Hurd of the Windsor county Y. M. C. A. will leave soon for France to engage in special work as the representative of the national and coun-ty association. Miss Alice Jenkerson will have charge of the Windsor county headquarters during Mr. Hurd's absence, while the members of the county committee will give attention to the business matters that may come up.

Twenty years ago, at the time of the Spanish-American war, Charles S. Frank wore the uniform of a trooper in the 3d United States cavalry at Fort Ethan Al-len. On one of the sleeves of his service coat was sewn the insignia of a corporal. That was 20 years ago, To-day hat same man wears the insignia of a lieutenant-colonel and is officially rec-ognized as the commanding officer of all the military at Fort Ethan Allen.

The engagement of Proctor Hull Page, son of Mrs. E. G. Page and grandson of Senator Carroll S. Page, to Miss Sara Parma Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Smith of Byron, Ga., and DeLand Fla., has been announced at the county home of Dr. and Mrs. S. D. Smith of DeLand, Fla. The wedding date is undecided, but will not be placed until the latter part of the year 1919.

Appointed to Work in Vermont.

It was announced at the recent conference of the Y. W. C. A. at the headquarters in New York, that Miss Marion Geary of Rutland has been appointed paign against rodent pests carried on field secretary of the association of Vermont. Miss Geary attended the conference and also the meeting of the committee of the northeastern field, of which New England is a part. As a result of the deliberation of the conference concerning Y. W. C. A. activities in Vermont, Miss Geary will establish headquarters in Rutland. From Rutland she will go to all sections of the state, studying local conditions that the Y. W. C.
